"Thou wilt Keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee . . ."

Isaiah 26:32
Foreword

The pages of this book, the 1965 COMMONER, will preserve through the years a brief picture of our life at Bryan College. The year has been a combination of happiness and of sorrow, of anxiety and of serenity. Yet amid daily situations and activities dwells the ever-present peace of God. We trust that each of us will continue to know in a constantly increasing sense the perfect peace which He has promised.
Like a River Glorious

Like a river glorious is God's Perfect Peace,

Over all victorious in its bright increase;

Perfect, yet it floweth fuller every day,

Perfect, yet it groweth deeper all the way.

Stayed upon Jehovah, hearts are fully blest;

Finding as He promised, perfect peace and rest.

Frances R. Havergal
Peace . . .

Like a river glorious

Is God's perfect peace . . .
A spirit of vivacity and an enthusiasm for life are exemplified in everything you do. When we see you pacing in front of a class or cheering at a ball game, we know you are genuinely interested in Bryan. Your classes prove that learning can be exciting, whether we're studying the fragrance of onions or the importance of an organized majority. We appreciate your unselfishness, your humility, and your consistent Christian testimony. In gratitude we dedicate our 1965 COMMONER to you, Mr. and Mrs. H. Blair Bentley.
"The nation is but a collection of individuals and reflects the character of the people. As the moral element is essential to a nation so it is to an individual."
William Jennings Bryan was a man who faced both defeat and triumph with determination and courage. He was a proponent of the common man, a courageous leader, and a fearless warrior. We the students of Bryan College want our lives to perpetuate and strengthen the memory of this great man.
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Although they come from different states and from different professions, Bryan's trustees have a common purpose. With their prayers, leadership, and finances, they help make Bryan a school that adequately prepares its students to lead an exemplary life.

TRIBUTE

Mrs. Mercer is one of the unique individuals who can accomplish many tasks with equal efficiency. In addition to being the president’s wife, a mother, and an English instructor, she finds time for many other responsibilities. An active member of the Bryan Women’s Auxiliary, she is not only a capable leader but also a willing and able worker. Each year her hours of planning and decorating make the receptions and banquets more enjoyable. From counseling aspiring grammarians to feeding hungry students, Mrs. Mercer exhibits a spirit of self-sacrifice and Christian charity.

WHO'S WHO

High academic averages, leadership abilities, and effective citizenship are some of the prerequisites for recognition in WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. These students have proven their abilities to combine effectively extracurricular activities with academic pursuits. In addition, they have maintained fine Christian testimonies which are manifested in their daily lives.
Realizing the importance of a vital, progressive scholarship program which can benefit a large number of students, scholarships are awarded by the college in three general areas. Academic scholarships are awarded to those with very high scholastic averages, athletic scholarships are awarded to those who have displayed outstanding prowess in basketball or baseball, and good will scholarships are awarded to those who need money, but have neither grades nor prowess. Funds for this program come predominantly from private contributions which are solicited each year at the Christmas "Gifts for the King" service.

NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS

Whether they transfer, continue a previous program, or begin their college study, these students are a welcome addition for the second semester.

CAPTURED COUNTENANCES
"Oh, sister!"

"They'll never know."

Unskilled labor.

"Waltzing Mathilda."

Egg shampoo.

Potential dropouts.
Peace . . .

SPIRITUAL

Perfect, yet it floweth fuller every day . . .
This year our chapels have been diversified with panel discussions, faculty and guest speakers, singspirations, and student-organization programs. This hour can be one of our most blessed, invaluable college experiences.

Chapel begins with an organ prelude played by Ted Hayes.
Faculty speakers introduce controversial topics.

Panels stimulate thought and discussion.

Tutored by Dr. Rudd.

Dr. Stuart Briscoe speaks to his first American college audience.
CHRISTIAN SERVICE ASSOCIATION

Teaching Bible classes in the public schools, assisting in local church services, and leading Sunday afternoon Child Evangelism classes are some of the opportunities for service offered by CSA. More important than just a way to apply our training, we have the privilege of introducing lost souls to Christ.
Ruth teaches a class of retarded children.

Ruth, Peggy, and Sue sing at the First Methodist Church.

Jean spends Sunday afternoons with her CE Class.

Eugene and his class of fifth and sixth graders.

Lil and Faye from Home Missions Prayer Band change the bulletin board.

Janet Claycomb speaks to a combined FMF meeting.

European Prayer Band.
FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

FMF is an organization which offers many opportunities for becoming better acquainted with missions. Through speakers, letters, and pictures we learn the needs and challenges of the different fields. This awareness helps us to pray more specifically and more intelligently for the missionaries.

South American Prayerband begins their meeting with singing.

D. G. lists the African prayer requests.

Missionary letters from Asia.

Prayer for the Hebrew nation.
"A good choir always watches the director."

CHOIR AND MADRIGALS

Under the leadership of Daryle Worley the Choir and Madrigals perform at various college functions including the annual presentation of the MESSIAH and the spring concert. During spring vacation and on weekends they represent Bryan at local high schools and churches.

GOSPEL MESSENGERS

On weekends and during spring and summer vacations, the Gospel Messengers represent Bryan and its objectives in various regions of the country. Traveling on a team is an arduous but rewarding experience.

Eugene Bengtson, Karen Worrell, Dot Sides, and Ted Caudill.
SPIRITUAL LIFE SERVICES

Each fall our school year begins with a week of Spiritual Life Services. More than a necessity or a mere routine requirement, these meetings help us determine our values and goals in the proper spiritual perspective.
MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

The Missionary Conference which is held during Homecoming, gives us the opportunity to become acquainted with some of the alumni missionaries. If we use the opportunities offered us, we can develop a better understanding of the importance and need of dedicated Christian workers who are "Marching on For Christ."

Reverend Earl Stevens addresses his "captive audience."

A women's trio provides special music.

An informal discussion.

One of the many missionary displays.
The faculty prays for guidance.

DAY OF PRAYER

Once each semester the Day of Prayer frees us from academic pressures and gives us a quiet time of meditation and personal devotion.

Bob and Dave have devotions together.

The students meet for prayer in alphabetical groups.
This year's Bible conference was an outstanding combination of excellent music and applicable messages. With a new purpose and understanding we concluded our week of meetings, with the congregational singing of Mallott's "The Lord's Prayer."

Since its commencement in 1958, the Advisory Committee to the Board of Trustees has sponsored six annual campaigns and six dinners on Americanism which have provided much needed support for the college. This year, Dr. Nat Winston, the director of psychiatric services for the State of Tennessee was the guest speaker.
BWA Officers: Mrs. Blair Bentley, president; Mrs. Karl Keefer, vice-president; Mrs. John Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Francis Goatley, treasurer.

BRYAN WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Few of us realize the many improvements and innovations of the BWA. These women express their interest in Bryan by donating time, money, and much hard work to worthwhile projects such as buying new chapel draperies, redecorating many campus areas, and furnishing the dormitory offices and lounges.

Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Keefer, and Mrs. Rudd prepare refreshments served in the newly furnished girls’ lounge.
STUDENT COUNCIL

Arranging blind dates for the President's Reception and planning High School Guest Weekend are two of the endless duties of the Student Council. This organization, consisting of the officers and two elected representatives from each class, encourages self-government as well as more communication between the administration and the students.

They don't have to explain it.
The HILLTOPPER, a monthly publication containing editorials, student opinions, and humor, is an annual sophomore class project.

Sandie Oswalt and Ted Caudill, copy editors; Sylvia Toliver, typist; Russ Porcella, business manager; Bob Vogt, layout editor.

John Stone and Ann Childers, sports editors.
COMMONER STAFF

Marion Richey, Layout Editor.

Mary Frances Rudd, Business Manager.
Our year of working together has been an unforgettable mixture of music, ladders, food, and discussions. The challenge of accomplishing the same goal despite deadline pressures and human failures has been an invaluable lesson in accepting responsibility, in cooperating with each other, and in putting our reliance on God Who gives Perfect Peace.
Proctors: Hope Warwick, Dot Sides, Bea Pendleton, Robin Seaver, and Assistant Dean of Women, Karin de Rosset.

DORM OFFICIALS

Faced with the difficult task of enforcing dorm rules, the proctors need to be consistent and need to have a sense of humor that can adapt to the most adverse of circumstances. Their Christian leadership can often provide a necessary influence in times of decision.

Proctors: Larry Hansen, Paul Rose, Gene Barchuk, and Dave Llewellyn.

PRESIDENT’S RECEPTION

The freshmen and new students with their carefully arranged blind dates were officially welcomed to Bryan by the faculty at the traditional President’s reception. The decorations and program centering on the theme of "Onward Christian Soldiers" made the evening a memorable one.
I had to wash my hair anyway.

INITIATION

Once again the Sophomore Class has survived the difficult task of orienting the freshmen. After the two-day ordeal which included street-sweeping, handicraft, swimming, and court procedure; the beanies were discarded and one more class was welcomed into the Bryan family.

Left: Wait! Have you signed your contract?

Below: Daddy told me not to come here.
ALL-SCHOOL OUTING

Cumberland State Park was once again the site of the All-School Outing. The fried chicken, boating, and games all made this, our last official day of relaxation, a worthy waste of time.
HOMECOMING

The day's informal activities culminated in a formal banquet, which was highlighted by the crowning of Queen Dot.

The head table.

The faculty quartet.

The new queen.

The breakfast gave us time to talk to old friends.
HALLOWEEN

Substituting bean bags for boredom, the Halloween Carnival with its games, food, talent show, and "beauty" contest, gave us an evening of noisy relaxation.

My "rook" card tells me . . .

CHRISTMAS

A student-faculty group sings "Toyland."

Good to the very last drop.
"Toyland," an enchanting place of elves and animals, provided a beautiful background for the annual Christmas banquet. The abundance of food and the good entertainment made it one of the highlights of the Christmas season.
Although it would be impossible to see all the phases of college life in two or three days, this weekend attempts to acquaint prospective students with as many areas of Bryan as possible.

With the springtime comes baseball and all the excitement of double plays, home runs, and strike-outs.
One of the most rugged and active sports, soccer has recently been introduced on an intra-collegiate level.

Track, which includes field events, relay races, dashes, and distance runs, is an exhaustive sport that involves endurance and teamwork.
Although it is a sport that receives little acclaim, cross country requires rigorous self-discipline and excellent physical condition.
A voluntary program which encourages the participation of everyone, intramural sports are an important part of the Physical Education Department.

IN MEMORIAM

Seldom does a school have such dedicated friends as Bryan had in Dr. F. R. Rogers and Dr. A. M. Morgan, Sr. Associated with the college since its inception, they both actively served as trustees for thirty-four years.

DR. ROGERS

1895-1964
Dr. Rogers' daily visits to the hill, his annual gift of Christmas candy, and his personal interest in individuals were some of the qualities which endeared him to succeeding generations of students. The memory of his quiet humility and unselfish devotion to Bryan and its standards is a lasting tribute to a sincere Christian man.

DR. MORGAN

1893-1965
Secretary of the Board since 1948, Dr. Morgan participated in all official transactions of the college. His cooperative spirit, generous support, and frequent presence at college functions helped to make him a trustee who was genuinely interested in Bryan's development. He will be long remembered for his kindly disposition, his warm-hearted concern for students, and his faithful Christian life.

Looking for Direction?

There are many paths of service—some at home, some abroad. Choosing your path may well be the most important decision of your Christian life.

If you are not yet sure what path God would have you take, perhaps we can help you. Almost every kind of training can be used serving God in Africa today. The need is great. We will gladly inform you of the opportunities on our fields. We will send you information about our work. We will pray with you as you seek God's will.

Write for our regular publications—sent free—and for our booklet Who Should Go?, a helpful guide for all who are choosing a path of service.

APPRECIATION

Charles Perry
capably advised us as our American Yearbook representative and bought us innumerable cokes.
Dr. Mercer
graciously advised us and ordered fifty annuals.
Mrs. Bentley
carefully checked all the copy except this page and the dedication.
Mr. Hill
aided in public relations as our class sponsor and taught us to play pool when we finished.
Dr. and Mrs. Harold Morgan cordially permitted us to use their home for pictures and their pool table for recreation.
Mr. Yoho
advised, encouraged, and let us in and out of the administration fortress.
The Junior Class
cooperated with us and bought a fifty-dollar advertisement.
The Advertisers, Friends, and Sponsors financially aided us and filled the back of the book.
